- written in French or English, the two official languages of ICC
- on international commercial law (including arbitration)

Please note that candidates should not be older than 40 years of age on 5 April 2021, the deadline for entries.

For further information on the entry conditions please consult the ICC Institute of World Business Law website at: www.iccinstituteprize.org

The ICC Institute of World Business Law named Tobias Lutz as Laureate of the 2019 edition of the ICC Institute Prize for his thesis on regulating the Internet through private international law. Tobias's book 'Regulating the Internet through Private International Law' was published on 2 July 2020.

THE ICC INSTITUTE OF WORLD BUSINESS LAW

The ICC Institute of World Business Law acts as a think-tank working closely with the ICC International Court of Arbitration. It is composed of Council members from over 15 countries, all experienced professionals or academics in international business law or international commercial arbitration, as well as more than 160 members from around the world.

Created over 35 years ago, the Institute provides research, training and information to the legal profession concerned with the development of international business law. In line with its philosophy of excellence, it proposes publications, trainings and conferences on different topics related to international business law.
